

„Danube-Networkers for Europe (DANET) e.V.“

Qualification Training aimed at strengthening the civil society and collaboration in the Danube region by capacity building

8th to 12th December 2014 at
Haus auf der Alb in Bad Urach, Germany

„Danube-Networkers for Europe (DANET) e.V.“ have developed a training scholarship scheme to enhance disseminators to apply for training and support financially their intention to join us. The scholarship scheme takes account of financial needs.

Please note that scholarships are limited, thus we would be grateful for a careful consideration of your financial needs and abilities with respect to applying for scholarships as only well justified requests will be approved.

There are two lines of scholarship:

1. Travel cost subsidy (depending on the financial abilities of your organisation) for 30 participants, up to 300 EUR /participant (calculation will be based on real travel costs). Participants are supposed to choose the cheapest travel option approved by the DANET office.
2. Training subsidy (depending on the financial abilities of your organisation).
 - 2.1 Training subsidy I in the amount of 130Euro / participant.
 - 2.1 Training subsidy II in the amount of 100 Euro / participant.

Subsides are preferably supposed to support the organisations / individuals from Eastern Europe. However, organisations / individuals from Western Europe not able to cover the costs on their own, are welcome to apply for an appropriate and justified scholarship scheme.

Eligibility for scholarship schemes

Applicants for scholarship schemes should satisfy the following criteria:

- Provide well justified reasons for the scholarship request.
- Be able to attend the training programme from the start date to the end date

Those interested in applying for scholarship should do so by sending completed enclosed application form, Training application form and CV in EU format in English via email to workshop@danube-networkers.eu.

Application for scholarship (please complete only if you are applying for scholarship)
